JOIN A COMPANY. JOIN A FAMILY.

At Carolina Handling we don't just say we care about our people. We show it. From advanced training and education to comprehensive benefits, we treat you like family. Our company culture is one that is supportive of both your career and your personal growth. We take care of our own, which is why we provide you with the best level of coverage at the lowest cost possible for all of our benefits, while working to make sure that you're protected during life's unplanned events and prepared for retirement. Welcome to the family!

Discover your potential.

At Carolina Handling you have the power to advance your career. Since we hire the best talent, you'll find yourself in an environment of motivated and supportive people, one that encourages and rewards imagination, creativity and excellence. Here, everyone's voice can be heard and new ideas are welcomed. It's the kind of environment that makes working more satisfying and encourages people to stay with us. We want to help you achieve your maximum potential, so we offer well-defined career paths and managers who encourage individuals, not just groups. When every Associate grows in their career, the entire company gets stronger.

We invest in you.

We believe that good people make all the difference. Our technicians always go above and beyond to deliver the best service and experience to our customers. That's why we invest a lot of time and training to prepare you to succeed, not just in our company, but also as an expert in the material handling industry. We believe that hard work should be rewarded with career advancement, continued training and educational opportunities.

A company you can believe in.

Along with supporting our Associates, we support our community and several charity organizations. We feel a responsibility to give back and to help those in need. We also believe in helping those who have done so much for all of us, which is why we are a proud supporter of hiring military veterans.
